UNFINISHED BUSINESS: Sarkan said it was mentioned a while ago about someone else taking over the Memorial Day Parade. Has anyone talked to or heard anything from the VFW on this. No. Mayor said it will be coming up soon, we do need to follow up. Donsbach asked about the Wapakoneta property, the Administrator said it is surveyed. Administrator will be meeting with the surveyor soon. Sarkan asked if Brian Dowell has contacted anyone. Council said no. Administrator said he will ask Mr. Marsh, we will probably have to send them a letter concerning the fence. Krabill asked about the Bridge Street and Fourth Street houses brought up at the last meeting. Administrator said he didn't see any high weeds on Bridge Street, Mayor stated they possibly cut them down since then. Smith asked if the Administrator is going to ask Mr. Marsh about the house on Fourth Street. Administrator said he can ask Mr. Marsh and will put a phone call into Beth at the Health Department.

NEW BUSINESS: Krabill said the Light up the Night parade was fantastic. There were hundreds of people there. It was impossible to find when the parade was starting. There was a safety issue, Front Street was not blocked off during the parade, someone could drive right into the parade. This is something to address for next year.
